Camo Belts & Up: Don't forget to wear your gloves and shin guards to every class. They're important for keeping everyone safe and improving your training!

Camo-Red Belts: Can't make your regular class? No problem! You're welcome to join a lower-rank class (e.g., Blue Belts can attend C/G/P classes).

Rec. Black Belts: Try to join as many Blue/Brown/Red classes as you can in addition to your regular Rec. Black Belt classes. It'll help you keep up with your fitness and practice your sparring.

Little Tigers: Please only attend the Little Tiger classes. The curriculum and expectations are very different, so coming to the Big Tigers class will hurt your Little Tigers confidence.
